

Protecting Your Online Identity

Your digital identity is valuable. Scammers will try to collect as much information about you, and then use it to steal your identity or blackmail you into paying them.

Keep your passwords, pins and other access codes private.

Lock your letterbox at home to prevent access to personal information.

Don't throw away your bills, bank statements or credit card statements. Shred them instead.